SOUTH PLAINFIELD'S 1st

ZOMBIEFEST

Saturday November 12, 2016 1pm - 2:30pm

Join us in downtown South Plainfield (Front Street and So Plainfield Ave) for an afternoon of ZOMBIE FUN!
Setup starts at 12pm, roads close by 12:45pm

Vendors DJ Dancing

"Monster Mash" 1:30pm

Zombiefest will be collecting donations for the Plainfield Humane Society because Zombies Eat Brains but Pets Eat Food!

Vendors needed! -Free Registration by November 5th!!

Beware: Although Zombiefest is intended to be a family event, "USE YOUR BRAINS", Zombiefest may not be suitable for young children. Parental/Guardian Discretion Advised! (Zombie etiquette on back of flyer.)

To register as a vendor and/or for more information contact Kimberly Anesh 908-625-5009 or spzombiefest@gmail.com.

SP ZOMBIEFEST RULES

DO NOT "attack" bystanders. Respect their space and they will respect our celebration. DO NOT attempt to scare anyone that is not a willing participant, if anyone is freaking out, turn and shamble in the opposite direction. AVOID confrontations.

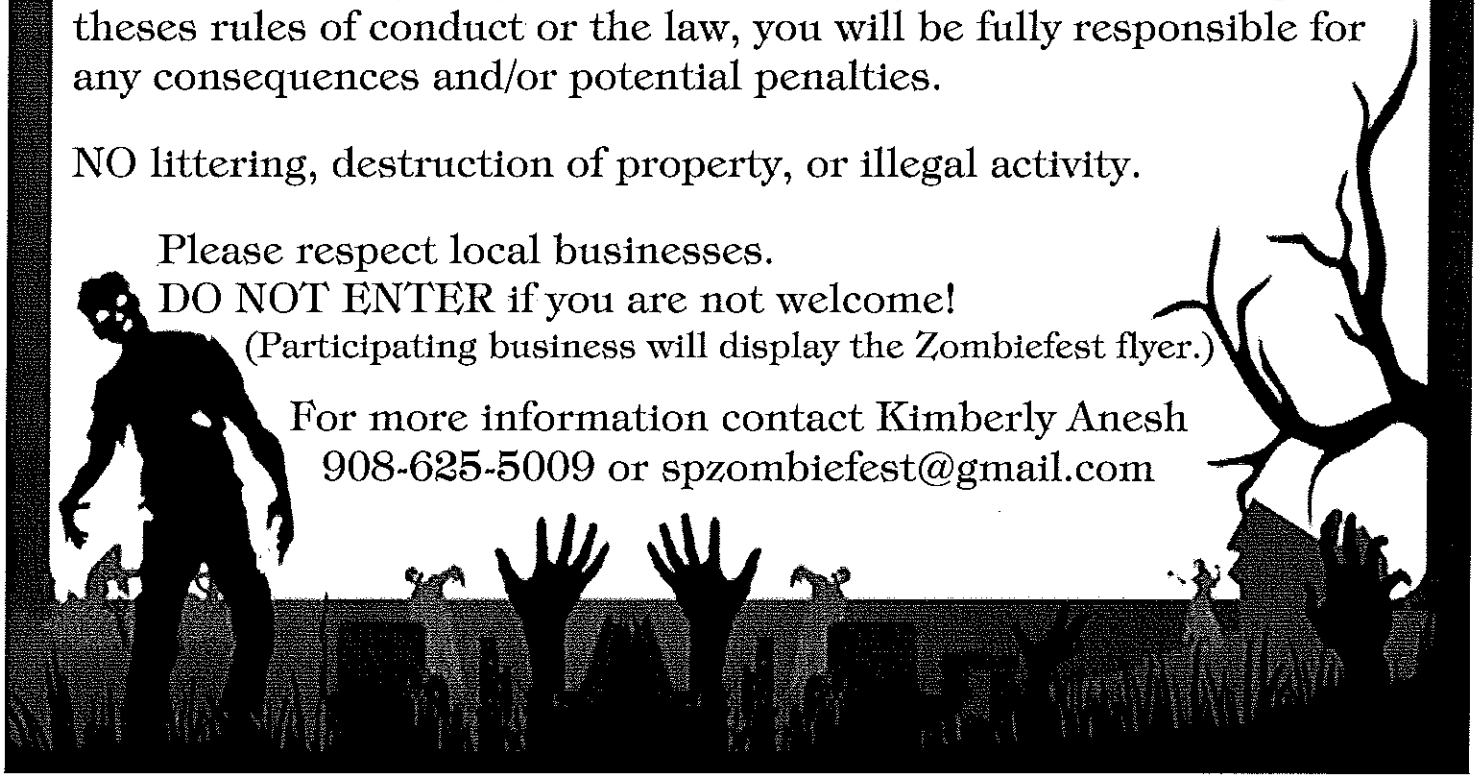
NO Profanities. This is a family event, zombies moan and groan, they do not talk or curse.

Costume Etiquette: Gore it up and have fun however be responsible, NO Nudity. NO vulgar language on clothing or signage. DO NOT have any part of your costume squirt or project any liquid or objects.

NO WEAPONS: Authentic weapons of any kind including, but not limited to, firearms, knives, swords, crossbows, etc. are STRICTLY PROHIBITED! Replica weapons (weapons that look real) are also NOT ALLOWED!

By participating in The South Plainfield Zombiefest, you take on full responsibility for your own actions. If you choose to disregard theses rules of conduct or the law, you will be fully responsible for any consequences and/or potential penalties.

NO littering, destruction of property, or illegal activity.

Please respect local businesses.
DO NOT ENTER if you are not welcome!
(Participating business will display the Zombiefest flyer.)


For more information contact Kimberly Anesh
908-625-5009 or spzombiefest@gmail.com